GLADSTONE

Will Introduce His Irish Measures Soon.

Home Rule to Take the Precedence of the Land Question

LONDON, March 26.-Gladstone appeared in the House of Commons this afternoon. Referring to the announcement made in his behalf yesterday by Sir William Ver-uan Harcourt, Mr. Gludstone said the statement he would make April 8 would take the form of introduction of a bill for the future Government of Ireland. The announcement produced a sensation. It amouncement produced a sensation. It is now believed that the Premier has, in deference to the apposition in his own party, decided to abandon temporally at least, his scheme for buying out the landlords of Ireland, and will make home rule in some form, pure and simple, the basis of his Irish proposals. A more careful study of Gladstone's statement throws doubt upon the balling that the introduction of the home rule bill would necessarily shelve the land purchase bill. Mr. Chamberlain to highly said the discussion in to-day's Cabinet Council only intensified the crisis. It had not, however, precipitated any resignations. A final effort would probably be made the coming week to effect a compromise between the Premier and the disputants in the Cabinet. Mr. Goschen denied at Windsor this evening, having been summoned as Privy Councillor by the Queen for consultation and advice. Later.—The Government's supporters have been privately assured that the Government's Irish programmen has been settled by the Cabinet. The Home Rule measure will be introduced first, followed immediately by the land bill. Both measures, if passed by the Gouse of Commons, will remain in the Cabinet und the losse of Lords together. The Men Will go to Work at Once-The Knights of Labor Recognized.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Conferences be-tween Jay Gould and T. V. Powderly today and this evening have resulted in or-ders from each of them to the parties to the Southwestern strike, ordering imme-diate resumption of work and traffic pending arbitration, to which Mr. Gould con-sents. This morning at 11 o'clock Mr. Powderly and W. B. McDowell called on Fowderly and W. B. McDowell called on Jay Gould at the latter's residence. There they met Messrs. Gould, Hopkins and George Gould. There was a general discussion of the situation in the Southwest on both sides, and a better understanding was arrived at than had been had by either party bitherto. After talking until 10 clock p. m., the conference was adjourned until evening. At 7 o'clock tonight they met again. At 8:30 p. m. Mr. Powierly had leave to keep an engagement with Congressman John O'Neil, of St. Louis. Chairman of the House Committee on Labor, who came from Washington to render assistance, if possible, in settling the strike. Mr. McDoweil, however, remained with Mr. Gould and his party, and Mr. Gould finally handed to McDowell the following communication:

WALTER D. KNOX, a Colorado stock herder, and Lizzie D. Miller were married a few days ago in Jeffersonville, by the County Clerk. Knox, who dresses like a typical cowboy, came to Louisville with a big roll of money and got on a high. He chartered a hack and asked the driver to find him a wife. The hackman saw the woman on a street corner and invited her to get in. She did so, when Knox asked to be driven to Jeffersonville, where the two were married after a courtship of less than no time. After the ceremony the we asked Knox where they would live replied: "I guess we wont live at all; I've got no further use for you, and am going back to Colorado."
